For: INTEGRATED SEMICONDUCTOR MEMORY CHIP WITH PRESENCE DETECT DATA CAPABILITY.

1. This action is responsive to amendment filed September 28, 2006. Claims 1-33, 45-52 and 57-59 have been canceled. Claims 34-44 and 53-56 are now allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

The prior arts of record do not teach nor suggest, either alone or in combination, all the limitations of the amended claims of the current invention (claims 34 and 53). The discussion of the reasons for allowance shall be directed to claim 34 in which the Examiner shall designate as the primary invention in this application; however, the reasons for allowance will also apply to other indicated independent claim (claim 53).

Art Unit: 2186

Particularly, the prior arts of record do not teach nor suggest a circuit for encoding presence detect data comprises a first signal encoding portion for encoding first presence detect information relating to a random access semiconductor memory chip, said first presence detect information being disposed in a hardwired circuit of said random access semiconductor memory chip during the manufacturing of the random access semiconductor memory chip, the first presence detect data having one of a first value associated with a short circuit within the hardwired circuit and a second value associated with an open circuit within the hardwired circuit; and a second signal encoding portion for encoding second presence detect information relating to the random access semiconductor memory chip, the second presence detect information being disposed in a programmable circuit of the random access semiconductor memory chip, the programmable circuit programmed subsequent to manufacturing of the random access semiconductor memory chip. In light of the foregoing, claims 34 and 53 of the present application are found to be patentable over the prior arts.

Claims 35-44 and 54-56 further limit the allowable independent claims 34 and 53. These claims are therefore allowable for the same reason as set forth above.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to
